

Recipe RAG — Test Document Corpus

A self-contained cookbook dataset for testing Retrieval-Augmented Generation, chunking, retrieval, citations, and grounded answers.

How to use this PDF: Ingest it into your RAG pipeline as the source document. Preserve the recipe title and page/section metadata if possible. Test both questions that are answered here and questions that are intentionally outside the corpus.

Suggested In-Corpus Questions

- What are the ingredients in the Creamy Coconut Chickpea Curry?
- How long should the sambar simmer after adding the dal and vegetables?
- Which recipe uses coconut milk?
- What ingredients are used to make Lemon Herb Rice?
- How is the pasta sauce prepared?
- What should be done with the chia pudding after mixing the seeds?

Suggested Out-of-Corpus Questions

These should trigger your grounded fallback, because the answers are not contained in this PDF:

- What is the traditional history of sushi?
- How many calories are in the Tomato Basil Pasta?
- What is the best restaurant in Bangalore?
- Who invented pizza?
- What is the shelf life of cooked chicken?

Your application should respond with an explicit I don't know / not found in the provided documents response instead of inventing an answer.

1. South Indian Vegetable Sambar

Cuisine: South Indian | Serves: 4 | Prep: 15 minutes | Cook: 35 minutes

Ingredients

- 1 cup toor dal
- 2 cups mixed vegetables (carrot, beans, drumstick, pumpkin)
- 1 medium tomato, chopped
- 1 small onion, chopped
- 2 tablespoons sambar powder
- 1/2 teaspoon turmeric
- 1 tablespoon tamarind paste
- 1 teaspoon mustard seeds
- 8 curry leaves

- 2 dried red chilies
- 2 tablespoons oil
- Salt to taste
- 3 cups water

Method

1. Rinse the toor dal and cook it with 2 cups of water and turmeric until soft.
2. Cook the mixed vegetables separately with enough water until tender but not mushy.
3. Heat oil in a pan. Add mustard seeds, dried red chilies, and curry leaves.
4. Add onion and tomato and cook until the tomato softens.
5. Add sambar powder and stir for 30 seconds.
6. Add the cooked vegetables, dal, tamarind paste, salt, and remaining water.
7. Simmer for 10–12 minutes. Adjust salt and consistency before serving.

2. Creamy Coconut Chickpea Curry

Cuisine: Indian-inspired | Serves: 4 | Prep: 10 minutes | Cook: 25 minutes
